

EUROPEAN POKER TOUR SEASON 10 MOVES TO VIENNA FOR SIXTH STOP

Spectacular Hofburg Palace will play host to first EPT Vienna stop in three years

ONCHAN, Isle of Man – November 6, 2013 – The European Poker Tour announced today that the Austrian capital of Vienna will take the place of Berlin as the sixth stop of EPT Season 10, with the festival taking place March 19-29, 2014.

EPT Vienna will be located in the stunning former imperial residence, the Hofburg Palace, which is located in the centre of the city and within walking distance to various hotels, shops and restaurants represents a major coup for EPT organisers and promises to be a fantastic experience for players. The EPT Vienna Festival will be operated in partnership with the Concord Card Casino group, which operates 13 poker rooms in Austria and has more than 20 years of experience.

“Due to a unique opportunity in Vienna, we have decided to change the location of the sixth EPT stop this year,” said EPT President Edgar Stuchly. “The Hofburg Palace is a spectacular venue with a grand history, and moving the EPT there enables us to offer a great player experience. The venue can fit over 100 tables and we will be able to provide an amazing tournament schedule with a wide variety of games including cash games in the Hofburg.”

This is the third time that the EPT has hosted an event in Vienna. The most recent event was won by German student Michael Eiler who pocketed €700,000 after beating a 578-strong field, including Team PokerStars Pro Daniel Negreanu.

Season 10's Vienna event is expected to attract over 1,000 players to the Austrian capital and will offer a wide variety of events, so there is something for every type of player. The schedule will follow the standard Season 10 EPT festival format with tournaments in a variety of buy-in levels including a €5,300 Main Event and €10,300 High Roller.
