

POKER, CASINO AND SLOTS UNITE WITH CASINO RUSH BY POKERSTARS

Challenge the world to become Casino Rush master with new PokerStars Mobile App

ONCHAN, Isle of Man – November 22, 2016 – Action-packed mobile gaming app Casino Rush, the latest innovation from PokerStars, an Amaya Inc. (Nasdaq: AYA; TSX: AYA) brand, is now available on app stores around the world, offering a free-to-play poker, casino and slots fusion to the modern gamer.

Casino Rush aims to fill a void in the games market by bringing the best of poker, casino and slots together with fast-paced, fun and entertaining games for players looking for an immersive, fun-filled experience on the go.

Casino Rush by PokerStars, which sees players go up against the house across a broad range of games, is free to install and play on iOS and Android devices. PokerStars' latest mobile app also doesn't require Internet connection as, unlike most social casino games, play is available offline.

Lloyd Melnick, Director of Social Gaming at PokerStars, said: "We spent a lot of time assessing the social casino market, what was missing and what players wanted. Our analysis found that our social players want a poker experience that they can enjoy quickly whether or not they are connected to the Internet. That's why we created Casino Rush. It is the best of poker, casino and slots all fused into one great game, just what gamers in 2016 are looking for."

New players will receive 75,000 free chips and will be credited with more free chips when they unlock new games, such as Swap the Flop Poker, All In Split and Lucky Hands. The Casino Rush leader board can be used by players to challenge the best poker players in their country and around the world. Players can also take part in private leader boards with friends, and challenge each other to discover who the true Casino Rush master is.
