

DOMINIC MANSOUR APPOINTED MANAGING DIRECTOR OF FULL TILT POKER

ONCHAN, Isle of Man – March 27, 2014 –The Rational Group has appointed Dominic Mansour as Managing Director of Full Tilt Poker, responsible for the day-to-day operations of the Full Tilt brand and business.

Mansour is an experienced gaming industry executive who most recently served as CEO of the UK based Health Lottery. He previously held senior positions at GTECH G2, NetPlay TV and Globalcom/WMC UK.

Since launching PokerStars in 2001, the Rational Group has become the industry leader with a focus on operational excellence and customer satisfaction. Rational Group acquired Full Tilt Poker in 2012 and has since expanded the site's offerings to include Blackjack and Roulette, with additional casino games launching in the coming months. The Group has also said it is planning to launch sports betting in the future.

“Dominic's experience aligns very well with our plans for Full Tilt,” said Rational Group Chief Operating Officer Rafi Ashkenazi. “He has strong commercial experience, a great marketing background, and first-class product knowledge across poker, casino and sportsbook. We're very happy to have him on-board.”

“Rational Group has big plans for Full Tilt and I'm excited to lead the charge,” said Mansour. “In addition to continuing to innovate on the popular poker platform, we'll be introducing exciting new games to our players, all supported by the exceptional customer support, security and integrity of the Rational Group.”

Mansour will report to Ashkenazi and assumes his role on April 22.
