The final table was dominated by German players, with the top three all hailing from the European country, putting Germany top of the money leader board for the series with $8,569,275.11. That was in spite of the fact Germany only won three titles to Russia's 12. There was also a strong finish in the Main Event from Team PokerStars Online player Shane 'shaniac' Schleger, who finished sixth for a career-best score of $291k.

Reflecting the prestige and world-class nature of this tournament, there were plenty of big names contesting Day 2 of the Main Event, including Andrey 'Kroko-dill' Zaichenko, who finished 11th for $67k, Jon 'PearlJammer' Turner, who came 15th for $56.5k, and several members of Team PokerStars, including Liv Boeree (52nd, $26,662.50), Mickey 'mement_mori' Petersen (63rd, $24,529.50), Humberto Brenes (69th, $23,463), Jason Mercier (144th, $15,997.50), Jake Cody (179th, $14,397.75) and Vicky Coren (209th, $13,331.25).

PLAYER OF THE SERIES

The World Championship of Online Poker 2013 Leader Board winner was 'Sykoen' from Norway, who cashed in 16 events and made three final tables. He will receive a Champion's Trophy, 2014 PCA package and 2014 TCOOP, SCOOP and WCOOP Main Event tickets for his incredible efforts. '-Rebus1980-' from Russia was nudged off the top spot and into second place on the very last day, but won TCOOP, SCOOP and WCOOP 2014 Main Event tickets for his remarkable consistency in cashing 17 times, making three final tables and winning one event. Well-known pros Stephen 'stevie444' Chidwick, Ami 'UhhMee' Barer and Team PokerStars Pro George Danzer all earned PokerStars 'COOP' tickets for finishing in the top 10.

BIGGEST EVER WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

The $5,200 Main Event was the culmination of the biggest PokerStars World Championship of Online Poker ever, with 66 events over three weeks. It was also the second richest World Championship festival ever, with $62,362,757 awarded to players – almost matching the all-time record, which was set by the 2010 World Championship of Online Poker when $63,157,150 was awarded to players.
